WASHINGTON, June 27.—(AP)-Majority Leader Barkely told the senate today he would attempt to hold it in continuous session until the OPA extension bill is disposed

He served the notice after Senator Moore (R-Okla) had spoken more than three hours against the bill, and in the face of a threat by Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) to talk until Monday if necessary to kill the measure.

The price control law expires at midnight Sunday unless tha extension legislation goes through. The house already has approved it, Wilson, Taft Speak.

Moore's 13,000-word speech had been followed by a brief address from Senator Wilson (R-Iowa). |Senator Taft (ROhio) had just taken the floor to deliver another when Barkley interrupted to make the announcement.

O'Daniel told reporters that although he had appealed to other senators for help, none had promised him aid in his plan to talk "until Monday." O'Daniel Waits Turn.

How Big Can A Bean Grow Now Being Guessed

Jack and his bean stalk have some real competition in Corsi-A giant bean of unusual and almost unbelievable proportions was exhibited at the Daily Sun office today.

Grown by Mrs. T. T. Watts in her home garden on South Thirty-fourth street the official specifications add up to this: Weight six and a quarter pounds; length 40 inches; dlamoter at the bulge, seven inches. "It is of just the common green bean variety," Mrs. Watts explained adding that they make excellent food—cut the bean into small pieces, add mest and cook like any other grean bean—they are very tasty."

chairman if the Corsi ana office. Several men from the Dallas enforcement division have been investigating local conditions for the month, and a warning has has been issued to automobile and lumber dealers as a result of their investigations.

The district office is now reviewing the case of one local automobile dealer charged with violating the established ceiling price in three instances.

The owner of the firm claims that he has made refunds to the three customers. He has receipts to show that he has made refunds. but affidavits are usually required The local office in recent weeks has sent notices to 55 persons asking them to come in and confirm their previously signed statements that they did not pay above ceiling prices for automobiles. "Anybody who has inowledge of overcharges for either automobiles or lumber is asked to notify this offict," Murchison said.

Mrs. Frank Kerr left Wednesday afternoon for Dallas and Worth where she will spend the rest of the week visiting friends; and relatives. In Dallas she will be the gue ' of her sister, Mrs. Ollie Branch,
